(Honours).

JOINT GRADUATE COURSE

OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC AND THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC

A Joint Course for the Training of Teachers in Music enabling teachers to acquire a qualification which will be recognised by the Burnham Committee as entitling them to salaries on the Graduate instead of the Non-Graduate Scale. The Course for 1937-38 begins in September, 1937.

The Course consists of two years' full curriculum at either Institution, followed by a third year of special training in Teaching. At the end of the third year an examination is held for the Special Diploma "GRADUATE OF THE ROYAL SCHOOLS OF MUSIC, LONDON," and candidates who satisfy the examiners have the exclusive right to append the letters "G.R.S.M. (London)" to their names.

The possession of this Diploma confers Graduate status, under the Burnham Scale, upon the holder.

Full information regarding these Courses may be had on application to :—

FEB., 1937.
